Reward 4

undys bookmarks

That is it! That is the end of my book. You have made it. You did not give up. Not once. I knew you could do it and you have!

Here is your last reward. It is something that will remind you of me, Dad, Aunty Faber and Amy. And it will also be very useful as you read lots of other exciting books.

It is four brand new bookmarks. All you have to do is cut each one out, colour it in and use it while you are reading new books. Grab some scissors and go for it! You deserve it.
