

Reward 1

the undys maze

What is going on?! You are here already! You must have read that first chapter in record time! If you are going to read that quickly, I will have to write the rest of this book much, much faster! :^)

Okay, here is your first End of Chapter Reward. It is one of my all-time favourite puzzles – a maze.

All you have to do is find your way from our flat to our new home – just like Dad and I have to do in the next few weeks. I hope you can do it!
