Reward 4

how to dance like the Undys

Yes! You have made it to the end of my book. You have read it all the way through. I think you should do a victory dance right now – even if you are reading in bed! Go on, give it a try. Do it now.

How good does that feel?

Okay, now that you have calmed down, it is time for your next reward. This is a very special one.

The next few pages have some of my favourite dance moves on them. All you have to do to learn them is:

1. put on your favourite music
2. turn it up loud
3. get into one of these poses
4. start moving to the beat

You will be dancing like the Undys in no time. Have fun!
